Reading Resolution of Maharashtra...! The first notice of this Reading Resolution Fortnightly Planning was given to all the students, faculty, parents, and non-teaching staff of the college on 31st December 2024, asking them to read any one of the books and to review/evaluate the book and narrate it in the Book Review and Narration Competition to be held on 16th January 2025 as per the given schedule.

Therefore, 147 students of the college participated in this Book Review and Narration Competition, but in the actual Book Review and Narration Competition, a total of 13 students presented the book review and narrated it in front of the examiner.

In this, the review and narration of the book Lekha Jokha written by Satish Tambe by Gaurav Vaman Kotenage B Com First Year was excellent, due to which the examiners gave the first preference to this review and narration, and the review and narration of these students got the honour of coming first from the college.

The book Balakaviche Kavya Vishwa written by Madhukar S. Patil was presented by Ms Tejaswi Leeladhar Mahure was ranked second by the judges and the book review and narration by Ms. Rani Umaji Kawase of the book Anubhav written by Vijaya Rajadhyaksha published by Pratibha Prakashan, Pune got the third place.

Even though the judges did not like the review and narration submitted by other students, the effort made by them was commendable and the judges expressed their optimism that they would definitely emerge victorious in the future.

On Republic Day on 26th January 2025, the principal of the college will give away prizes to the first, second and third place winning students and the reviews of the books submitted by them will be published in the annual issue of the college, "Shabdashilp", published for the year 2024-25.
